FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1869

"Hope's to internal improvements," as Dobbs said when he swallowed a dose of salts.

An Ohio Inventor applies for a patent on a snoring preventative. It consists in an application of a clothes-pin to the nose.

Stiglitz, the new married man, says his wife is a perfect rose. The only drawback to his happiness is, that she blows out perhaps a "leath" too often.

A brother editor tells us that when he was in prison for libelling the justice of the peace, he was requested by the jailer to give the prison a puff.

"I can marry any girl I please," said a young fellow, boastingly. "Very true," replied his waggish companion, "for you can't please any."

A stumper exclaims: "I know no North, no South, no East, no West, fellow citizens!" "Then, exclaimed an old farmer in the crowd, "it's time you went to school and learn geography."

Two "ladies" were having some words together, when the daughter of one of them popped her head out of the door and cried, "Be quick, mother, and call her a thief before she calls you one."

"Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today," said an advising mother to her little son.

"Well, then, ma, let's eat the raspberry pie that's in the cupboard," was the reply of the young hopeful.

A man who lately sued a lady for breach of promise was offered two hundred dollars to settle. "What?" he cried, "for here lies a very old man." Pat carefully spelled out the inscription, "Baltimore, 154 years," and then continued: "He was 154 years old, and his name was Miles, from Baltimore."

"Hounds also, Mike," said one of two Irish pedestrians, as he reverently approached a mile-stone. "Read rightily," said he, "for here lies a very old man." Pat carefully spelled out the inscription, "Baltimore, 154 years," and then continued: "He was 154 years old, and his name was Miles, from Baltimore."

EVERTON TAFFY—First, melt in a shallow vessel a quarter of a pound of butter, and add to it one pound of brown sugar. Stir them together for fifteen minutes, or until a little of the mixture dropped into a basin of cold water will break clean between the teeth without sticking to the teeth. Any flavoring that is desired, as lemon, pineapple, or vanilla, should be added just before the baking is complete. The taffy when done, should be poured into a shallow dish which is buttered on the bottom and edges. Should you wish to break it into squares, draw a knife across it when partially cool.

The Blessings of Poverty. If there is anything in this world that a young man should be more grateful for than another, it is the poverty which necessitates starting life under very great disadvantages. Poverty is one of the best tests of human quality in existence. A triumph over it is like graduating with honor from West Point. It demonstrates stuff and stamina. It is a certificate of woolly labor faithfully performed. A young man who cannot start this test is not good material. He can never rise above a drudge or a pauper. A young man who cannot feel his will hardened as the yoke of poverty presses upon him, and his pluck rise with every difficulty that poverty throws in his way, may as well retire into some corner, and hide himself. Poverty saves a thousand times more than it ruins, for it only ruins those who are not particularly worth saving, while it saves multitudes of those whom wealth would have ruined.
